LUNCH & LEARN

Cork 101

This lecture is accredited for 1 or 2 LU/HSWs.

This seminar covers the basics of cork as a material, tracing its journey from the forest to the floor. It explores the properties of cork tiles, along with an introduction to installation and maintenance.

Learning Obectives:

a) The history of cork trees, where they are grown, and what makes cork such an interesting material.

b) Participants will learn how the cork tree becomes a flooring material.

c) Participants will learn the natural characteristics that make cork a wonderful flooring material..

d) Participants will learn about installation, finishes and maintenance.

For more information and to book an event at your office or our showroom:
Contact us at events@aronsonsfloors.com or call (212) 293.4993.

ARONSON'S FLOOR COVERING